Testimonial

"Planning a trip to the New Orleans Zoo with 130 third graders and their parents could have been a daunting task, but with the help of the wonderful people at Huddletrip our trip was a stress free, memorable experience. We highly recommend this wonderful company! We will certainly be return customers."

Discover the Huddletrip Difference

We Help You Put the Pieces Together

About Us

With Huddletrip, planning a group trip has never been so easy! We help schools, churches, and other organizations plan, manage, and execute fun, safe, and successful group trips.

Our experienced, professional team enjoy providing customers with excellent service. We make it easy and stress-free to plan a group trip!

Experience and No Hidden Fees

With over 20 years of experience, customers that book with us enjoy world class customer service, competitive rates, and online management tools. Moreover, they never face hidden fees or unexpected charges. We guarantee it.

Dedicated Trip Coach

A dedicated trip coach will assist you from the moment you request a quote until the end of your trip. They will work diligently to put everything together, double-triple check details, prepay vendors and much more. Your Trip Coach will be with you every step of the way. While on your trip, if you need anything your dedicated partner will be just a phone call or email away.

Trip Management Tools

Your Trip Coach will set up a customized account for you. Through your account you will be able to manage and monitor your trip, track participant payments, host key documents, drag and drop room lists, and much more. Also, you will be able to invite group participants to set up an account, which will allow them to view their payment schedule, make payments, access information and forms, and more.
